EXTRACT FROM IRELAND'S DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE
 PROCLAIMED APRIL 24, 1916; RATIFIED JANUARY 21, 1918

"The Republic guarantees religious and civil liberty, equal rights, and equal opportunities to all its citizens, and declares its resolve to pursue the happiness and prosperity of the whole nation and of all its parts, cherishing all the children of the nation equally, and oblivious of the differences carefully fostered by an alien government, which have divided a minority from the majority in the past."
