Dear Minister,

The invitation extended on behalf of the sovereign citizens of the Sovereign Republic of Éire to the English Sovereign, requires that all insignia displayed on Irish public buildings declaring the sovereignty of the Crown of England in Ireland be removed from the property of the people of The Sovereign Republic of Éire, prior to the visit of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II of England.

I refer in particular to the Coat of Arms of the Kingdom of Ireland, which remain erected over the Four Courts of the Inns of Court, at Inns Quay in Dublin and more recently erected, displacing the Sovereign Seal of Dáil Éireann, over the Courts of Justice at Parkgate Street in Dublin.

The sovereign duty to administer justice is vested in the Government of The Sovereign Republic of Éire. The judicial and executive authority to administer justice in The Sovereign Republic of Éire cannot be vested in a Kingdom of Ireland institution, being The Honorable Society of The Kings Inns which derives authority under "Dieu et Mon Droit"

Signed and Sealed, on this the seventh day of July two thousand and ten,
under the sovereign seal of The Sovereign Republic of Éire.

William James McGuire
President of the Irish Republican Brotherhood
President of The Sovereign Republic of Éire
Keeper of The Sovereign Seals of The Sovereign Republic of Éire
