Process for Recommendation prior to the Nomination of a Person by the Government to the Office of President of the High Court

Arising from the forthcoming retirement of the President of the High Court, the Government has established a process for recommendation prior to the nomination of a person to be appointed as President of the High Court by the President of Ireland under the Constitution.

A non-statutory advisory Committee has been set up to invite and consider expressions of interest in the position of President of the High Court and to make recommendations for consideration by the Government.

The Committee comprises:

- The Honourable Mr Justice Frank Clarke, Chief Justice
- Ms Jane Williams, Sia Partners
- Mr Séamus Woulfe SC, Attorney General

Expressions of interest are invited from eligible persons. Expressions of interest should set out the person's education, professional qualifications and experience relevant to the position of President of the High Court, accompanied by a statement (maximum 1000 words) setting out the reasons for the person's interest in and suitability for the office, including his/her capacity to carry out a leadership role in the Judiciary, including in particular the management of the High Court and the capacity to drive reform.

Expressions of interest should be sent via email to hcinterest@taoiseach.gov.ie

The deadline for submission of expressions of interest is 1pm on 21 May 2020.
