Dear Sir,

The General Secretariat of the Council of the European Union, which assists the European Council and the Council of the EU, acknowledges receipt of your letter addressed to Donald Tusk.

Having read your letter carefully, we regret to inform you that the issues you refer fall within the competence of the national authorities of Member States in question, and not that of the President of the European Council or the Council of the EU.

Yours faithfully,

COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION

The Public Information Service

Mail received by the Public Information Service is treated in accordance with the provisions of Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data (Official Journal L 8 of 12.1.2001, p. 1). Personal data in your mail will be used by the Public Information Service solely for the purpose of handling your request. However, some inquiries may also be directed to an official of the EU institutions or of the Presidency of the Council of the European Union who is competent to reply to a particular question.

For statistical purposes your mail will remain in the unit's archives for a maximum duration of 5 years, after which it will be destroyed. You have the right to access and rectify the data concerning you by contacting the Public Information Service (tel.: +32 2 281 56 50, Head of Unit: Ms Inés Hempel) and the right to have recourse to the European Data Protection Supervisor.

Disclaimer: The information provided has been prepared by the Public Information Service of the General Secretariat of the Council of the EU and may not be regarded as constituting an official position of the Council.
