

ÉIRE

Irish Republican Brotherhood

Deeds of Acknowledgement and Confirmation – FAQs

- Why are the IRB rolling out these Deeds of Acknowledgement and Confirmation for Sovereign Claimants in Éire?

The IRB are rolling out these Deeds in order to give recognition to the living men and women in this Country.

- Does claiming via a Deed make me a Member of the IRB?

No.

- Does claiming my Sovereignty via an IRB Deed de-register me from the voting system?

No.

- Does claiming my Sovereignty via an IRB Deed affect my statutory entitlements if I'm availing of welfare supports from the State?

No.

- Am I obliged to notify the State?

A Claimant is under no obligation to do anything with their Deed. The IRB have no affiliation with the Crown Corporation Irish Free State.

- What authority does the IRB have to issue these Deeds?

The IRB hold the Sovereign Seals of Éire. The Seal may be affixed by the IRB to a document for authenticity.

- Going forward, what does the IRB intend to do for/with the living men and woman who have claimed via a Deed?

The IRB are putting in place the framework for an Independent Sovereign Nation State. Any living man or woman that has claimed Sovereignty via a Deed will be visible to the IRB for inclusion and benefit.

- Does claiming via these Deeds affect my position in relation to TAX?

No. What every man and woman decide to do with TAX is a matter for themselves. These Deeds confirm that you are a living wo/man taking charge of your own destiny.