1. Debrief on the meeting of the E.R.B.

Tim Dennis has lawfully secured a harbour in Galloway, Scotland and is also interested in the establishment of the S.R.B. From this location, he and a friend have been brewing and trading beer. They are also in possession of a tall ship. It is intended that the location known as the harbour of Galloway be listed on E-I-R-E.org to claim the superior title. As a gesture and in recognition of two sovereign nations conducting commerce and further, in recognition of Éire's sovereign claim to her territorial waters, it is proposed;

- The Lord Lieutenant's flag (1542-1801, gold harp on azure background) purchased at auction on 6-12-22 be salvaged and used as an ensign for those sailing Irish territorial waters.
- As a maiden voyage and demonstration to treat, it is proposed that Tim skipper the ship from Galloway down the east coast of Éire and around to the Arran Islands. There, they will conduct commerce under the authority of the I.R.B.

15-16 sovereign claimants and the unanimous adoption of the Code of Conduct, Programme of the Brotherhood and the Albion Shield after their proposal and discussion by the ERB Council.

Vice-President Josephine-Dolores C continues her work with trial by jury in England and it is proposed that 4-6 sovereign claimants from England sit as jurors on the upcoming hearing in the sovereign Dáil Courts re The Anglo-Irish Treaty in September 2023.

2. Rollout of Deeds Omagh, Tyrone 30-4-23

It is confirmed that there will be a rollout of Deeds of Acknowledgement and Confirmation in The Wee House, Omagh, Tyrone on Sunday, 30-4-23 between 15:00hrs and 17:00hrs.

3. Anna-Marie Stack

HSE employee and physiotherapist, Anna-Marie SR has been summoned to the royal courts over statements in relation to the Covid pandemic. Her statements have been documented and rebutted by an expert witness for the HSE. She has been asked to appear before the solicitors for the defence via the trade union, FOSRA. The IRB has offered their support to her in this case by way of calling on its own expert witness Dr. Margarite Griesz-Brisson. It is suggested that this documented evidence compiled against Anna-Marie be included in the September sovereign Dáil Éireann Court hearing of John-Declan F vs Norma Foley and Tony Holohan.

Anna-Marie has displayed resilience and courage during her adversity with the HSE and it is noted that these qualities are of merit and, along with her medical knowledge, are worthy of a place on the Supreme Council as Secretary for Health. Proposed and carried unanimously.

4. Public notice.

A Public Notice has been drawn up by the IRB detailing current and past members of the Supreme Council. Past members are also thanked in the Notice. It is to be posted on all communication channels along with the Code of Conduct and the Foregoing Constitution of the IRB.

5. Marion Gordon

Marion Gordon has come to the attention of the organisation. She appears to be responding or "speaking for" an ex-member of the Supreme Council, Brendan K. She may be a PoI (person of interest) as she seems to have standing with those looking to derail, detain or dismiss the I.R.B. It was noted that she was at the wedding of the Vice-President, Dolores Cahill and is also on the jury of the Falsk 4 case being heard at the moment. Other impediments to our progress mentioned were Opus Dei and Common Purpose.

6. Sovereign Dáil Éireann Court structure

It is time to bring the Court structure forward for the upcoming hearings with a finalising of the sitting justices. Barra dR will be calling Vincent C. with regards to this.

Teresa Clyne is coming to IRB HQ in Ballyvara House on the first weekend in May (Saturday 6th May, 2023). It is proposed that she be given the title of Brehon Master for the sovereign Dáil Éireann Courts. This will confer authority for her to appoint 6-7 Brehon justices to the Court who are happy to be in the public domain. We will also be seeking the agreement of Chief Justice, Josephine-Dolores C.

7. A.O.B.

There is a Society of Peace conference in Dalkey, Dublin on the 12th May, 2023. The Chair, John-Declan F will attend and propose the I.R.B. as an umbrella organisation to further common aims.

The Secretary for Education Barra-Séamus dR has written a cease and desist letter to the General Secretary of the teaching union the INTO, John Boyle. He has been given 7 days to respond. Other unions to be called on are ASTI and the TUI.

Meeting ends 12:51hrs
