

1. Meeting with fellow Republican

Saturday 27th May 2023, John-Declan F had a 2 1/2 hour meeting with his Republican counterpart in the National 1916 Commemoration Committee, Colm McGuinness. He briefs John-Declan on what the Republican movement is up against with regards to opposition. He expressed his disappointment in Billy for letting the 1916 Committee down on 2 occasions. The first was the 100th anniversary of the 1916 Easter Rising which Billy was asked to lead. The second what is the hundredth anniversary of X which Billy cancelled at the last minute. It is speculated that Tom Ryan was the cause of these cancellations. John-Declan explains to Colm McGuinness that Tom Ryan is not a member of the I RB, has never taken an oath and is probably an infiltrator. He also explains that the IRB are not looking for anything and are just setting their lawful position. Colm sent on the submission that was given to the U.N. by the 1916 Committee before the Good Friday Agreement took place explaining that Ireland is a 32-county sovereign republic that does not recognise the unlawful occupation of the 6 counties. Colm is blown away by the amount of work that has been done by the I.R.B. and this has removed any doubts about the organisation. Colm will be reporting back to his fellow committee members.

2. Secretary for Children

A proposal was put forward that Eamon C be given the post of Secretary for Children. John Declan F nominates and Niall Martin M seconds. The first draft of a policy for children has been drawn up by Eamon C and John Declan F will work with Eamon towards the finished product. Proposal carried.

3 Óglaigh na hÉireann

The I.R.B. are looking for the origination documents of the Irish defence forces (Óglaigh na hÉireann). According to history the Irish Volunteers (I.V. 8 string harp) was a military organisation established by the Irish Republican Brotherhood in 1913 response to the Ulster Volunteers (U.V.) established in 1912 and funded by, Lord Rothschild, Lord Ivaegh (Guinness's) and Rudyard Kipling.

On Wednesday 24th May 2023, the President, William-James (Billy) McGuire calls the Chairman, John-Declan by phone. In Billy's company is Séamus Ó Súilleabháin, former member of Óglaigh na hÉireann whose commission to train troops for the Irish forces is signed by Eamon DeVelera, Jack Lynch and Michael Hilliard in 1968. In the company for the Chair, John-Declan is Chief Justice, Dolores C. On the same day that John-Declan receives the paperwork from Billy, he also receives the Title 4 salvage claim from Jason-Paul G for the Air Corp and Navy flags of the Irish Army. As an action item, Barra dR has been asked to research the founding of Óglaigh na hÉireann.

Proceeding

I.R.B. to salvage the Defence Forces

I.R.B. to secure governance of the Defence Forces

I.R.B. to position the Military Council

I.R.B. to promote Séamus Ó Súilleabháin to Lieutenant General

For this to be done, the agreement is sought on the following;
That the Chair of the Military Council is ex officio the Secretary of Defence.
The Secretary for Defence is the Commander-In-Chief. Agreed unanimously.

Proposal; With this authority, The Chair of the Military Council, John-Declan F proposes that Barra dR be promoted to the rank of General of the Defence Forces. Seconded my Kevin T. Carried.

Proposal: that the rank of Lieutenant General be conferred on Séamus Ó Súilleabháin subject to his agreement. Carried unanimously.

In order to safeguard the role of Lieutenant General, all orders will be discussed verbally and on approval by the President, William-James McGuire, The Secretary for Defence and Commander-In-Chief, John-Declan Flanagan and General Barra de Roiste, only then will orders be committed to writing.

We then set position of authority over ports and airports.
Set claim for the Courtroom in McKee barracks under the U.P.U.
On securing the claim, we will have a premises to run the Republican Sovereign Dáil Courts of the sovereign people.

Kevin T asks the Chair if there has been a background check on Séamus prior to discuss the role. John-Declan assures Kevin that safeguards are in place and also an equity was made during the meeting with Colm McGuinness as to his character and the response was favourable.

Note: Séamus has know Billy for a long time but was led astray by Tom Ryan for some year. However, he seems to have realised the error of his ways.

Sign off for all new positions on Saturday 17th June 2023.

4. Compromised

Having spoken with the Vice-President and Chief Justice, Dolores C, John-Declan feels that her status is still “compromised” due to the company she is keeping, her appearance in the Crown Courts and giving interviews afterwards. It is felt and agreed by all present that this is not becoming and damages the reputation of the organisation. Having dedicated so much time in the Crown courts she has been negligent in her duty to the organisation as Chief Justice. John-Declan feels that he may be able to influence or direct her behaviour to see how important this role is. More so than that of vice president.

5. Claim of Fact and Declaration of Dominion

John-Declan has sent in a Claim of Fact and Declaration of Dominion to the Office of Attorney General to correct his status. He has had some very productive meeting with Chris O’Hara, co-founder of the Society of Peace as there is a lot of common ground. Chris has assisted a lot of people to correct their status through the Society of Peace (SoP) and has agree to collaborate with the I.R.B. as move forward together with common goals. Chris has unplugged many tentacles of the corporation through his work. He has observed that the corporation have no problem in harming the person but are reluctant to harm the living sovereign. They (SoP) are also "terrified" of using the surname which is part of the fraud and access to the Trust. However a child has been created for its use.

As we move forward with rollout of the Claim fo Fact and Declaration of Dominion (wording still to finalised), this ease the logistics of the Deeds of Acknowledgement as it will require less of the Executive to be present.

Removing ourselves from the voting register will further strengthen our claim that "Your government is not our government". Once the wording for the Claims has been finalised it is suggested that they be sent by the individuals to all government departments.

Passports

We are working toward applying for passports using only our fact name. This has been accomplished by Chris although the Gardaí initially refused to stamp the form. The fact-name autograph will also have "all rights reserved" underneath to further enforce the rights of the sovereign to travel with this document. This Claim of Fact will also be on of the documents that are linked back to the I.R.B. travel I.D.

Note: As the I.R.B. was founded in 1858 and U.P.U. was founded in 1870, the authority for the claim is older.

6 É-I-R-E Superior Title claim update

In order to add value to value with the Eire superior title claim, three silver coins will be added to the document and will be kept with the document for its lifetime. The coins will be struck/minted with the sovereign harp on one face and the map of the territory of Éire on the other. Having studied the Down Indentures won at auction, the Éire documents will carry the Seal of the Territory and Presidential Seal in green. It will also be recorded that this Deed represents a portion of the Sovereign Territory.

The real value of the Deed will be apparent when the sovereign brings back to the land. After 1 year and 1 day, there will be no fear of claim by any other person or entity, corporate of royal on that land.

7. G.A.A.

It was proposed the mini replica of the Sam McGuire cup also won at auction be presented to the Clare minor hurling team. It is felt that this is fitting as Michael Cusak, a founder of the Gaelic Athletic Association and a native of Clare. They would also be presented with genuine all-Ireland medals with "Éire", the Celtic cross shape and the IRB initials as they were pre-2008.

8. Next rollout

Next rollout suggestion Sunday 4th June 2023 in Offaly. There were some enquires as to a rollout in Kerry and it was suggested that Ballyvara House would be a suitable venue.

It is also suggested that a talk and question and answers session now accompany the rollouts for new and existing sovereign claims. It is time to explain why those even with the best intentions fails to deliver once they become elected. Once you become a part of the corporation, your duty is to the shareholders of that corporation. In the case of the Government of Ireland, the shareholders are not the People of Ireland. They do not own that corporation.

9. Court sitting

It is proposed that the 5-day court session be conducted in November as was done last year 2022. Ballyvara House is the proposed location and will accommodate all types of cases.

John-Declan is to work with Eamon C to word an affidavit to have his case transferred to the Sovereign Dáil Éireann courts.

Colm G is also looking create and Order of Mandamus from the Sovereign Dáil Éireann Courts (SDEC) where he will look to have the a strike out.

10 Sovereign Voyage

The tall ship will be in Dublin in September of this year, 2023. It is suggested that the executive be there to welcome the boat. The maiden sovereign voyage from Galloway to Galway is still going ahead. Louise Price will also have a Korean delegation at the dry stone walling workshop in Donegal.

Paddy Crowe is coming to Doolin.

9-6-23 or 9-6-24 until 6-9-23/24

11 INTO

Barra dR has been keeping an eye on the INTO media centre for any breach of the cease and desist notice that was sent. The INTO magazine INTouch has advertised a summer course for teachers on the LGBTQ+ agenda which may be a breach. To be followed up.

12 AOB

It is time to start canvassing volunteers for roles within the SDÉC system. All roles will be oath-bound.
